

Photo submitted to the North Scottsdale Independent

Clowning around for a good cause

Executive Clown Corps members pictured are North Scottsdale resident John H. Godbout, CEO of CCs Presentation Systems; Glen Hinshaw, CEO of North Scottsdale-based Foot Fitting LLC; Matt Hobaica, principal at Lee & Associates; George C. Rubelsky, First Industrial Realty; Danny Martinez, principal of Precision High School; John Glass, president of Glass Financial; Michael Scanzello, Glass Financial; Steven M. McClain, vice president of Klondyke Inc.; Joe McBride, Clear Channel Communications; Manny Molina, president of Molina Media Group; Art Othon, APS; Ray Fidel, CEO of Drive Time; and Alfredo Molina, Molina Fine Jewelers.

Local executives recently dressed in make-up and costume at Phoenix Children's Hospital and delivered breakfast and goodie bags bedside to patients. The Executive Clown Corps members donated $1,500 each to spread fun and laughter to kids, while supporting the hospital's programs and services. After meals were delivered, the clowns shuttled to the 35th annual Fort McDowell Fiesta Bowl Parade route to march in honor of patients, families and staff.

For more information, visit www.phoenixchildrens.com.